Stephen F. Brenton Health Policy Scholar Award

The La Follette School of Public Affairs is honored to send the Stephen F. Brenton Health Policy Scholar Award application for a La Follette graduate student again this year. Each year, one scholarship is awarded to a La Follette School graduate candidate who has demonstrated interest in a career in health policy. First-year and continuing students are encouraged to apply. The award will be given to students with an interest in pursuing a career in health policy, preferably one that impacts the State of Wisconsin and its citizens.

The Stephen F. Brenton Health Policy Scholar Award has been created to honor Steve Brenton and to help prepare Wisconsin's next generation of health care leaders. Steve Brenton, an alumnus of UW-Madison with a bachelor's degree in political science, spent his career in health policy and is a widely respected leader. His skill in state and federal government relations and advocacy helped shape the health care landscape in Wisconsin and the nation.

This year's award is $6,000 and will be applied to the candidate's 2016-17 tuition. All scholarship applications must be received by August 28, 2016. Applicants should email the application answers with an updated resume to Mary Treleven at mtreleven@lafollette.wisc.edu. The 2016-17 selection committee will consist of the Director of the La Follette School, another La Follete faculty or staff member, and Eric Borgerding, current president/CEO of Wisconsin Hospital Association. The recipient of the award will be announced the week of September 12.

Stephen F. Brenton Health Policy Scholar Award Application

Name, Last, First:

Phone #:

Email address:

Graduate Program(s):

Expected graduation date:

1) Describe your ties to or interest in working in healthcare in Wisconsin (please answer in less than 100 words).

2) How has your previous professional experience or La Follette coursework inspired you to focus on healthcare policy (please answer in less than 100 words)?